(1) The deceased, who was a permanent inhabitant of Madras died at Rangoon. His properties are in British India. He was not a resident of the Mysore State. But the petitioners who filed this petition give their addresses as Malleswaran, Bangalore City. Section 382 says that when a certificate in the form as nearly as circumstances admit, has been granted to a resident within a Foreign State by the British representative accredited to the State, the Certificate shall have the same effect in British India as a certificate granted under Part X. Section 382 must be read with other sections in part X. Section 371 gives the jurisdiction of the Court to grant certificate. It says "The District Judge within whose jurisidiction the deceased ordinarily resided at the time of his death or if at that time he had no fixed place of residence, the District Judge within whose jurisdiction any part of the property of the deceased may be found, may grant a certificate". The petitioners can very well apply in the Courts in Madras. It is doubtful whether the Resident can grant succession certificate in this case, though the petitioners are residing in the Mysore State. The advocate for the petitioners was called upon to explain the position and he said that he would file a memo explaining the position. Further action may be deferred till 10/6/1939.

(7) The scope of section 382, as given by the commentator at page 1101 of Basu's Indian Succession Act, is that the applicant should establish his representative right in the Court of the domicil of the deceased and should apply to the British Representative for the issue of a certificate in his name. Here the domicil of the deceased is Madras and the petitioners are said to be residing in Bangalore City. By the mere address given in the petition it cannot be presumed that the petitioners are residents within a foreign state. At this rate many applications could be filed before the Resident by merely giving the address of the petitioners in the Mysore State in order to escape objections from the opponents, if any. In this case, there are no opponents and the advocate for the petitioners states in para 6 of his letter (PUC) that the heirs of the deceased person live permanently in a foreign state. It cannot be said that the Madras Courts have no jurisdiction to entertain a petition for succession certificate. The amount involved in this case is nearly 19,000/-. If the petition is to be taken up on file, publication of notice in one of the Madras dailies is desirable.

For orders whether the petition can be entertained.

Sir,

SN4.
Comp. W.

1 With reference to your memo R.Dis. No. F. 9 (13) 1939 dated, Bangalore, 19th July 1939, I beg to submit as follows:-

2 The application in question has been made by me under Sections 382 and 372 of the Indian Succession Act. S. 372 prescribes the form of an application and S. 382 is the Section under which the grant is sought.

3 The office pointed out to me that the application was not maintainable for the following reasons:-

(a) That the deceased was not a permanent resident of nor did he die in the Mysore State.

(b) That the property in respect of which the grant is sought is situated in British India.

4 My contention is that none of these restrictions on the jurisdiction to make the grant apply to the Crown's accredited representatives in foreign States. These restrictions have been placed only on the powers of the other granting authorities viz., the District Judge or any other Court specially empowered by the Local Government. The only condition required by S. 382 is that the person to whom the grant is made should be "a resident within a foreign State".

5 As a matter of fact the persons who insist upon the production of the Succession Certificate in this case viz., The Post Master General, the Oriental Government Security Life Insurance Co., etc., have agreed to act upon a Succession Certificate granted by the Hon'ble The British Resident in Mysore.

6 I venture to submit that in cases like this where the heirs of a deceased person live permanently in a foreign State it stands to reason that the law provides a method of obtaining representation to suit their convenience and when the Crown's accredited representative in the foreign State is authorized to make the grant it is also consistent with the reason of the law that his jurisdiction is not restricted in the same manner, as the jurisdiction of the District Judge or other Court.

7 For, after all, succession certificates etc., are meant partly for fiscal purposes and as such it is provided that the certificate granted by the Crown's representative must be stamped in accordance with the Court Fees Act.

8 It must be remembered that the granting authority in such cases is the Crown's representative in the foreign State, viz., in this case the Hon'ble The British Resident

ADVOCATE.

8, A. Infantry Road
CHICKPET.

and not a Court - not even the Court of the Resident.

9 The Office seems to still maintain that the restrictions applicable to a District Judge or other Court apply equally to the Crown's representative in a foreign State. I am not aware nor have I been apprised of the provisions of the Law on which the office rely. I am not prepared to accept a mere assertion in this matter.

10 The duty payable on the certificate will be the British Indian Stamp duty, for the certificate will be issued on British Indian Stamp and I fail to see why the office maintain that the jurisdiction of the Crown's representative is subject to the same restrictions as the jurisdiction of a District Judge or other Court.

Yours faithfully,

Advocate.
